

As Candles Glow

Getting the effect of shimmering candlelight as they plan their "Candleglow" Fashion Benefit are these members of the planning committee of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary, from left, Mmes. Richard Nielsen, ways and means chairman; Thomas Rupert, co-chairman of the affair; and V. Gerald Cardozza, transportation chairman. The nursing scholarship benefit will be held April 20 at Coconut Grove. (Press-Herald Photo)

South Bay Hospital

Auxiliary Slates Fashion Benefit

Decor of the Coconut Grove will be further enhanced with red and pink individual corsages banked at the base of candle centerpieces on each table when the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary presents its annual Fashion Luncheon on Thursday, April 20.

Auxiliary members and their guests will gather at 11 a.m. for cocktails. Luncheon will be served at noon and a parade of elegant new spring and summer fashions by top California designers will follow. Miss Juanita Guess, well known fashion co-ordinator, will be the commentator for the show.

Mrs. Paul McGrath and Mrs. Thomas Rupert are serving as co-chairmen of the annual benefit, proceeds from which will be used as funds for continuing and growing support of Nursing Scholarships at El Camino College.

"Candleglow Fashions" is the theme of the event and the chic new creations for California women 'round the clock, will be shown by professional models against a background of piano music.

Assisting the two chairmen are Mmes. Donald Kachman, Wilbur Seaton, Paul Dennis, Seymour Zimmerman, Wayne Donovan, Dennis Bundy, Carol Klotz, V. G. Cordozza and C. R. Walker.

The public is invited to attend and reservations are being taken by Mrs. Donald Kachman, 36740 Minominee Place, Palos Verdes.

Future Bride

ROSALIND MATTSON

Mattson - Reinertson

Mr. and Mrs. Norman D. Mattson, 3502 W. 227th Place, Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosalind Romelle, to Reinert Paul Reinertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinert J. Reinertson of Bell.

The bride-elect is a graduate of South High School, class of 1965, and Long Beach Business College. She is presently employed as a dental assistant in Lomita.

Her fiance, a graduate of Bell High school and Long Beach State College, is a speech and drama teacher at Warren High school in Downey.

An August wedding is being planned.

Thoughts of Spring

In a salute to spring, Las Vecinas Woman's Club will sponsor a Spring Dance and Buffet Dinner Saturday evening at 8 p.m. at the Los Verdes Country Club for members and guests. Mrs. Richard Cass is serving as chairman and is assisted by Mmes. Stephen Brixey, Edward Ackerman, Robert Hein, Robert Johnson, Gale Lowder and W. K. Culp. Paul Hendricks' orchestra will play dance music and Margaret Michaels will stage an exhibit of modern dance and favorite classics. Completing final plans for the gala social event are, from left, Mrs. Stephen Brixey, ticket chairman, selling tickets to Mrs. Ray Holman while Mrs. Cass checks out guest list. (Press-Herald Photo)

Baubles Bangles and Beads

Members of the Torrance Woman's Club will don colorful gypsy costumes and laden themselves with flashy jewelry to preside at the club's "Thieves Market" on Wednesday, April 12, at their clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. The public is invited to a luncheon to be served at 11:30 and then they will have the opportunity of visiting the gypsy camp where wares will be offered at bargain prices. Setting the mood for the "Thieves Market," Mrs. Frank Breit, as a gypsy fortune teller, holds the attention of Mrs. Richard Dorothy, while two "thieves," Mrs. Robert Winship, as a pirate, cuts the strap on her purse and a "sneak thief" Mrs. R. L. Rudy ransacks the purse. Luncheon tickets may be secured from Mrs. Alma Smith. (Press-Herald Photo)

B'nai B'rith Women Plan

Installation Dinner-Dance

B'nai B'rith Women, Southview chapter, will install new officers at a dinner-dance on Saturday evening, April 8 at the Ramada Restaurant, 4111 Pacific Coast Hwy. A red and white color theme will set the stage for the impressive ceremonies to be conducted by Mrs. Morris Lane, district four first vice president, assisted by Mrs. Lester Sacks, Harbor Council first vice president.

Kahn, corresponding secretary; Harold Chertock, financial secretary; Monroe Haas, treasurer; and Laurence Rodson, councillor.

Executive board members are Mmes. Leo Brodsky, Alvin Fliegman, Harr Herz, Eugene Kushnick, Seymour Lampel, Jules Rensen, Robert Robbins, Benjamin Rosen, Arnold Savader, and Joseph Zahn.

Mrs. Arnold Salvader, chairman of the installation, is in charge of reservations which may be made with her or her co-chairmen, Mmes. Seymour Lampel or Jules Rensen.

The new president has been a member of the chapter for two years. She and her husband and two children moved to the local area three years ago from Skokie, Ill.

In Illinois, Mrs. Kaplan worked with service organizations and won three fund raising honor awards for Asthmatic Children.

Mr. Kaplan is vice president of an electronics firm, the Credifier Co. in Santa Monica. He is active with the local B'nai B'rith.

Harbor Council delegates are Mmes. Joseph E. Bishop, Sheldon D. Kaplan, and Joseph Sperling. Delegates to district convention include Mmes. Sheldon Kaplan, Laurence Rodson, and alternates are Mmes. Lester Sacks and Joseph E. Bishop.

Note of Elegance

Discussing plans for their installation as new officers of the Southview B'nai B'rith Women Saturday evening a bit of piano music is played by Mrs. Joseph Sperling, who will become third vice president, while in background, from left, Mmes. Joseph E. Bishop, first vice-president; Sheldon D. Kaplan, president, sample new perfume held by Mrs. Leonard Fink, second vice-president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Gypsies Invade City For

Colorful Thieves Market, Luncheon

A Thieves Market, with bargains galore displayed in gaily decorated booths and manned by colorfully garbed gypsies, will be sponsored by the Torrance Woman's Club at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, on Wednesday, April 12.

Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, ways and means chairman, announces that a luncheon consisting of a hot entree, salad, and dessert will be served to the public beginning at 11:30 a.m.

Guests will then have the opportunity to see and purchase the wares displayed by the gypsies.

Featured booths and their chairmen include: books, Mrs. W. Norman; white elephants, Mmes. H. C. Richards and Albert Isen; bakery, Mmes. Charles T. Rippey and John Keefer; arts and crafts, Mmes. R. L. Rudy and Richard Dorothy. Others are Pirates Scrubbie, Mrs. Robert J. Winship; Mexican, Mrs. A. C. Boyd; candy, Mrs. Dean L. Sears; stationery, Mrs. John C. Warnock; cosmetics, featuring free facials, Mrs. William Lowell.

Money derived from the Thieves Market will go to the club's philanthropic fund. Mrs. Alma Smith may be called for luncheon tickets.